I had forgotten how much I love Jane's Addiction - until I saw Nothings Shocking. Blew me away! NS brings an authentic Jane's Addiction live show experience that transports me right back to my high school/college days. Here we go!!

-Kirsten Daniels (Vocalist of Rubbish-Garbage Tribute)

What can I say??? You guys fucking rocked it!! Wow! Marco was so fun and entertaining to watch, like he was in character. Of course the vocals and musicians were beyond outstanding and it was pretty obvious this whole band are consummate professionals.

I had such a great time working as your production manager for your latest show at High Dive! Thank you so much for how professional and efficient you all were, the whole crew was so impressed and thankful! You guys played an absolutely KILLER set and the crowd had so much fun. I am hoping we are able to work with you guys again in the very near future!

-Jojo Bodily (Production Manager of High Dive)

Nothing's Shocking is one of the most compelling shows and unique experiences I've worked on. The musicianship and connection to the real artistry of Jane's is spot on and emotionally moving for any Jane's fan. A lush palette sonically and visually, with attention to every detail on-stage and behind the scenes. You guys were incredible and far exceeded any expectations for a tribute to a band I really love!

-Tim Mitchell (Audio engineer, Guitarist)

WOW, just completely amazing! Nothing's Shocking, a Jane's Addiction Tribute. I'm no pro music reviewer snob, but I do know what I like when I hear/see it! First and foremost, The vocals, throughout the show, were SO freeking amazingly spot on and one of the best frontman around, plus, any show with Dusty playing guitar, I know I'm gonna have a good time! It seems everything he's part of, turns to gold! The rhythm section, I was blown away from this drummer! Gawd damn!!!! versatile, hard hitting and rock steady, and pair that with the solid beats and lines from the bass player, all the stage presences of each seasoned musician, and you have a top-of-the-line performance! Well worth double the admission price! DO not miss their next show!!!!

Close your eyes, drift away, back to the early days of a Jane's Addiction live show. Now this is how the Nothing's Shocking Jane's Addiction tribute band the capture the magic of a live Jane's show perfectly, even to the stage sets, every song played to pure perfection. Catch these guys while you can. The singer sounds and looks exactly like Perry!! You are not going to be disappointed in these boys. They are THE Jane's Addiction tribute bar none! We sponsor them through the Forum and we absolutely love these guys. Beg, borrow or steal a ticket, but be sure to go and see them live!

It is obvious to any musician that how much work you have put to fine tuning this act/band. Any four guys with tablature and YouTube can cover songs, but it's how you sonically match with each other under the original band's umbrella of sound, THAT is not easy at all. It's so hard to achieve, that many bands fall apart before getting there. Being sonically matched and capturing the essence does not mean having the same equipment, it means knowing your equipment, knowing the original band's sound. You guys did it. LIVE. That's amazing!
